INTRODUCTION

The Greater Washington Urban League (GWUL or the League) is on a mission to increase the economic and political empowerment of historically vulnerable and diverse populations. For 85 years, the League has stood on society's frontlines as well as in the trenches serving as a safety net and facilitator of opportunity in Washington, DC and Montgomery County and Prince George's County, Maryland. As one of the District's oldest civil rights organizations, the League continues to carve a distinctive path towards justice and fair play by putting families first and catering to the needs of children and the elderly, and everyone in between. Since 1938, GWUL has guided individuals on the road to self-sufficiency, impacting over three million lives.

As an important and long-standing manifestation of its mission, the Greater Washington Urban League and its young professionals' auxiliary, Thursday Network (TN) are committed to awarding educational opportunities through scholarships for college-bound and currently enrolled college students. In conjunction with numerous corporate sponsors, GWUL has facilitated the distribution of more than $2 million in scholarships to more than 336 young adults to financially support their freshman through senior years at any accredited four-year college or university in the United States. Scholarship recipients have matriculated to a diverse and elite range of higher education institutions, including Historically Black Colleges and Universities, local colleges, Ivy League, and other colleges/universities, as well as the Job Corps and other special post-secondary education and trade establishments.

For the 2025-2026 school year, the Greater Washington Urban League will award several scholarships to deserving high school seniors and current undergraduate students, ranging from $1,000 to $8,000. All scholarship disbursements are for tuition and will be delivered directly to the bursar's or student accounts office of the student's school for the Fall 2025 term.

ABOUT GWUL'S YOUNG PROFESSIONALS' AUXILIARY, THURSDAY NETWORK:

Thursday Network is the young professionals' auxiliary of the Greater Washington Urban League (GWUL) and supports community service and civic engagement efforts in the Washington Metropolitan area. Thursday Network's vision is to be a catalyst for change in the Greater Washington community by serving as a training ground for our members to improve community and self. For the 2024-2025 term, Thursday Network's pillars reflect the most urgent needs of the community. The pillars are Leadership development, Political Advocacy, Economic Security, Social Determinants of Health, and Youth Empowerment. Through the leadership of the Community Service Committee, Thursday Network has developed several outreach efforts that benefit children, youth, the elderly, and the environment.

Application Receipt Date:	01/11/2012	JO 01
Processed Date:	01/11/2012	EFC: 7256 DRN: 4557

Comments About Your Information

Based on the information we have on record for you, your EFC is 7256. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for federal grants, loans, and work study, and possible funding from your state and school.

WHAT YOU MUST DO NOW (Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.)

If you have now completed your 2011 tax return, you should correct your information to reflect the income and tax information reported on your tax return. Click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page to make the correction. You may be able to retrieve your tax return information directly from the IRS. If you have not yet completed your tax return, you must correct this SAR to reflect the income and tax information reported on your tax return once it is filed.

If you need to make corrections to your information, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page. You must use your Federal Student Aid PIN to access your record online. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school's financial aid office or the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243). If your mailing address or e-mail address changes, you can make the correction online or call 1-800-4-FED-AID and ask a customer service representative to make the change for you.

SECTION VIII: WRITTEN AND VIDEO ESSAY

The National Urban League (NUL) has a history of providing direct services to communities in need. In honor of this commitment, the Greater Washington Urban League Scholarship Applicant must describe how he/she would assist a community in need and how he/she has served his/her community by submitting one written essay AND one video essay addressing one of the following questions:

Essay #1 (Written Essay)

Education is often described as the foundation for social and economic mobility, yet many communities face inequalities in access to quality education. Reflect on a specific challenge related to education in your community or in a community you care about. Describe the impact of this issue, propose potential solutions, and discuss how you would contribute to creating change.

OR

Essay #2 (Written Essay)

In recent years, issues such as economic inequality, racial justice, access to quality education, and public health disparities have come to the forefront of national conversations. Choose a current event or challenge impacting underserved communities and share your perspective on how individuals and organizations, like the Urban League, can work to address this issue.

Written Essay Instructions:

- The essay response should be submitted as a Word document, saved as a 2025 GWUL Scholarship Application Essay - Your Initials. For an example, if your name is John Doe you would save your essay as the 2025 GWUL Scholarship Application Essay - JD.
- No longer than 1,000 words.
- Font should be 12 point, Times New Roman
- Double spaced with normal margins (1-inch top/bottom and left/right).
- *Do not write your name or any personal identifier within your essay documents.***

Your written essay will be evaluated for clarity of expression, use of proper grammar, and punctuation, and the extent to which you address each of the items in the questions above.

The Greater Washington Urban League and Thursday Network define plagiarism as “a direct violation of intellectual and academic honesty.” Although it exists in many forms, all plagiarism refers to the same act: representing somebody else’s words or ideas as one’s own. This can take the form of taking material from other sources, including the Internet, and deliberately failing to give credit in your essay to the original source. Therefore, it is very important that you properly document sources in your essay responses with verifiable citations. You may include citations in the footnotes of the Word document or on a separate “References” page. Citations do not count towards the 1,000-word limit. Additionally, the use of AI tools or assistance is strictly prohibited.

Essay #1 (Video Essay)

The National Urban League empowers individuals to be catalysts for change. Please share a personal story or experience that demonstrates your commitment to serving your community. Highlight the impact you made and how this experience connects to your goals for the future.

\*You may also use this opportunity to bring attention to any information not disclosed elsewhere that you feel will add to our understanding of your application.*

Video Essay Instructions:

- Video essays are expected to be your original work
- Recommended length of video is maximum of 120 seconds
- Upon request, winning submissions must be accompanied by a Microsoft Word document to accommodate closed captioning
- Applicants should upload their video to a shareable drive (e.g., Google Drive) and provide the corresponding video link when prompted in the application. Videos do not need to be viewable to the public, only sharable for the review process. Video should be saved in an MP4 file format
- Video resolution should be 1920x1080 (1080 HD at 60 fps or higher)
- Videos should have good audio sound quality
- We strongly encourage you to record your video using a smartphone or high-quality digital camera
- For video filming best practices visit www.gwul.org/scholarships and view our “Video Filming Guide”
- We suggest practicing your answers before recording

Guidelines for video essay eligibility:

- Professional (paid) assistance at any stage of the process is prohibited; using professional assistance is grounds for disqualification of your application
- Video essays should only contain your original work
- Videos may not contain material that infringes another’s copyright or licensing rights or otherwise infringes another’s rights, including but not limited to privacy, publicity, or other intellectual property rights
- Videos essays should only include the applicant

Video essays will be evaluated on the following criteria:

- Providing an answer(s) to the prompt
- Clarity of message or theme
- Originality of work
- Creativity is encouraged but not necessary
- Applicants can provide their responses in the forms of spoken word, lyrics, monologue, and/or a voiceover. If an applicant chooses to do a voice over it must be of an original piece said from their own voice.
